

LRA CRISIS TRACKER

ANNUAL SECURITY BRIEF
JANUARY-DECEMBER 2013
PRINT VERSION

Table of Contents

Executive Summary

LRA Survival

I. LRA camps and resupply routes	3-4
II. LRA looting patterns	5

LRA Force Capacity

I. The LRA loses safe havens and key commanders	6
II. Kony's grip on the LRA command structure	7-8
III. Long-term women and children captives return home	7-8

Congo: Key trends

I. Steady decline of LRA violence in Congo	9
II. Making a living in the LRA's shadow	10
III. Armed group tactics converge in northeastern Congo	11-12

CAR: Key trends

I. The LRA responds to military pressure in CAR	3-4
II. Surge in LRA attacks near Seleka troops	5
III. LRA hotspots in Haut Mbomou	5

Background

I. 2013 political context	3-4
II. LRA background	5
III. About the LRA Crisis Tracker	5
IV. LRA Crisis Tracker Methodology	5
V. Contributors	5

Note: This LRA Crisis Tracker report is designed to be viewed online as an interactive report at <http://reports.lracrisistracker.com/en/annual-2013/>. The following print version is intended as a secondary copy for those without access to the internet.

A publication of: