

LRA CRISIS TRACKER

ANNUAL SECURITY BRIEF
JANUARY-DECEMBER 2013
PRINT VERSION

Table of Contents

Executive Summary	1
LRA Survival
I. LRA camps and resupply routes	3
II. LRA looting patterns	4
LRA Force Capacity
I. The LRA loses safe havens and key commanders	6
II. Kony's grip on the LRA command structure	7
III. Long-term women and children captives return home	8
Congo: Key trends
I. Steady decline of LRA violence in Congo	9
II. Making a living in the LRA's shadow	9
III. Armed group tactics converge in northeastern Congo	10
CAR: Key trends
I. The LRA responds to military pressure in CAR	11
II. Surge in LRA attacks near Seleka troops	11
III. LRA hotspots in Haut Mbomou	12
Background
I. 2013 political context	13
II. LRA background	14
III. About the LRA Crisis Tracker	14
IV. LRA Crisis Tracker Methodology	15
V. Contributors	17

Note: The 2013 LRA Crisis Tracker Annual Security Brief is designed to be viewed online in an interactive format at <http://reports.lracrisistracker.com/en/annual-2013/>. The design of this print version is more limited and is intended as a secondary copy for users with minimal internet access.

A publication of: